

What We Do

As the leading animal welfare organization in the Central Valley, we're committed to serving our community of animals and people. We provide programs & services for all stages of an animal's life:

- Adoptions
- Low-Cost Spays/Neuters
- Rescue
- Affordable Vaccinations
- Foster Care
- Humane Investigations
- Humane Education

...& so much more!

The goal of our Volunteer Programs is to engage the hearts & minds of the Fresno community to help animals.

If you're looking to give your time & talent, become a volunteer for CCSPCA. We're open every day of the year and rely on your compassion!

Can YOU lend a hand to animals in need?

Everyone can be an animal advocate! The Central California SPCA is so much more than just an animal shelter. We're a place where you can share your unique talents to help homeless animals in the Valley.

If you can't volunteer time with us, there are other ways to help. Contact us if you'd like to know more!

Volunteer Programs

Helping animals since 1895

Our Programs

Adult Volunteer Service

Adults (18+ yrs.) assist with direct animal care, customer service, clerical work, facility work, events, and more.

Youth Work Experience

Teens (14-17 yrs.) complete non-animal handling tasks that benefit animals in our care, including customer service, cleaning, office work, shelter tasks, event assistance, and more.

Junior Animal Education

Kids (8-13 yrs.) learn about animals in a group setting. Non-animal handling tasks and interactive monthly workshops cover responsible pet ownership, dog bite prevention, and more wide ranging animal knowledge. Games, crafts, and team activities are fun and informative for all!

Volunteer for a Day

Perfect for groups, clubs, & organizations of all ages.

- 3 hour service minimum
