

Petition for Readmission of Disqualified Graduate or Advanced Certificate Student

Academic Standards:

Students in conditionally classified or classified graduate standing are required to maintain a minimum cumulative postbaccalaureate grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 prior to advancement to candidacy (or program approval for advanced certificate students). After advancement to candidacy (or program approval), students must maintain a minimum 3.0 program GPA. Students who do not maintain the required GPA will be placed on Administrative Academic Warning (AAW) - formerly Administrative Academic Probation. Students placed on AAW for any two semesters will be disqualified from the university.

Direct all inquiries regarding this petition to your graduate or advanced certificate program coordinator.

Instructions:

- Complete the *Petition for Readmission of Disqualified Graduate or Advanced Certificate Student form with required signature. An incomplete petition will not be considered.
- Attach a one-page typed and signed appeal to the petition, explaining the circumstances of your disqualification and your potential to meet the required minimum GPA of 3.0. Provide a rationale explaining the cause(s) of your academic difficulties and how you have been able to resolve these difficulties. Indicate anything else you believe would be helpful in the consideration of your request, including supportive documentation.
- Submit the completed petition and supportive documentation (if applicable) to your graduate or advanced certificate program coordinator for review and recommendation by the program faculty.
- If approved by your program faculty, your graduate or advanced certificate program coordinator must submit the original petition to the Office of the University Registrar for processing. Email form to academicrecords@mail.fresnostate.edu.
- Incomplete petitions will be returned to the graduate program coordinator unprocessed.

Important Note: Students who have been approved for readmission but cannot register for the current term must reapply to Fresno State via www.calstate.edu/apply by the published deadline for the admit term in which they seek readmission. All registration/add deadlines must also be adhered to.
