Text

A New Introduction to Greek, Chase and Phillips

Requirements

- Class attendance and participation (10%)
- Four examinations, each covering 5 chapters. (50%)
- Four essays, each 500 words, on a topic of Greek literature, culture, and history (40%). Topic must be discussed with and approved by instructor in advance. All essays will be graded on grammatical and mechanical correctness, as well as on the presentation and development of thesis and the coherence of the argument. Students should consult the MLA Handbook for format and style of essay.
- Extra Credit (5%)

Grading Scale

100-90 A
80-89 B
70-79 C
60-69 D

Course Goals

Students will finish the semester having completed the chapters 21-40 of the text, evidencing by passing performance on exams a knowledge of intermediate Greek grammar, morphology, vocabulary, and syntax. As well, students will have a general knowledge of selected Greek literary, philosophical, and historical ideas and works; will be able generally to relate these to subsequent European literature and culture; and will be able to state similarities to and differences with non-Western literatures and cultures.

Course Policies

Students are expected to attend class with their books, having read the chapter assigned and translated the sentences, which must be turned in at the start of the hour. Late work, whether exams or exercises, will not be accepted except for legitimate emergencies (sickness, death in family, child-care problems, work conflicts, accidents).

Class participation is mandatory. Everyone will be treated with respect and consideration. Talking, eating, or sleeping in class is not acceptable. Students who are having difficulty are encouraged to meet with the professor during office hours for extra help.

Cheating and Plagiarism will be dealt with according to the policies set for in the Catalogue and Schedule of Courses. Students with disabilities should communicate their needs to the instructor and the university.
