

IRA 2026/2027 LATE Call Information:

The IRA Committee has established the following priority for the Late IRA Call:

Student Presentations and Conferences

IRA prioritizes funding requests that directly support students presenting their academic or professional work at conferences and symposiums. These opportunities promote academic success and professional development while providing valuable experiences that may not otherwise be readily available. This priority reflects IRA's strongest application criterion: student impact and engagement.