

Plan for Excellence Goal #5

Engaged with the Region

I. Introduction

President Welty

II. Indicators of Engagement

Jeri Echeverria

- A) Achieved national recognition for partnerships with the region through Carnegie Foundation Engaged University status; criteria for status – engagement among students, faculty, staff and engagement with the community and region
- Goal: Maintain Status
- B) Center for Community Based Learning
Increased funding to Center by 50% in four years (Fresno Reads, Jumpstart, Blood Drives, SL Fair, other programs)
25 departments have approved SL coursework (47%)
Students provide over 460,000 hrs service, representing a fiscal impact of $10.2 million annually in the Valley
3,660 students enrolled in SL courses last year (16%)
Community Service Scholars Program 785 students provided 283k hours
Annually recognize students, faculty & community partners
Included in and acknowledged in the RTP process
- Goal: 1 million hours by Centennial; fundraise for Center
- C) Development/Expansion/Maintenance of Key Institutes
Water Institute
International Food and Nutrition Institute
Central Valley Policy Institute
Central Valley Educational Leadership Institute
Lyles Center for Innovation & Entrepreneurship
Office of Community and Economic Development & California Partnership for the San Joaquin Valley
California Agricultural Technology Institute (CATI, ARI, Spec Crops)
Viticulture and Enology
- Goal: Expansion in productivity, impact and funding
- D) Extended Education & Special Programs
Osher Life Long Learning
New Certificates in Land Use, Community College Faculty Preparation

American Humanics Program in Non Profit Sector
Subject Matter Projects for Teachers (6 programs)
Young Writers Conference
Science & Math Education Center

Goals: Maintenance, Expansion, Impact

E) Cultural Events

College of Arts & Humanities (over 300 performances annually)
SaveMart Center (nearly 200,000 people in its first 6 months)
Summer Arts Program (64,000 people in 42 performances)
University Lecture Series (5-6 speakers, 4000 people)
Programming for KSFR (Student Radio Station)

Goals: Maintenance, Expansion, Impact

III. Campus Accessibility

Cindy Matson

Development of Campus Master Plan
Development of Campus Pointe
Environmentally Friendly Efforts (sustainability, energy efficient, Alternate transportation methods, and more “green”)
More “Visitor Friendly” Place & More Welcoming

IV. Athletics

Thomas Boeh